I remember back when I had nothing, just a dream in my head They said I wouldn't be nothing, now I'm counting the bread My mama called, seen me on the TV, said I finally made it The world kept turning, but the ones who doubted look outdated Worked so hard, I forgot how a vacation even feels Focused on the millions, now I'm spinning chrome wheels They wasn't friendly then, now they act like we're close But I'm jumping out the Bentley, doing the most.

G-Wagen, G-Wagen, I just park it where I want now VVS on my teeth, watch the ice bring the sun down Hunnid bands in my pocket, yeah, it's getting hard to fit If you fuck with winning, put your lighters up for this.

Every time I show up, they just saying: "Wow" The ice in my mouth got 'em looking at me now See the igloo in my grin when I'm winning the game I'm flying at the top, and they finally know the name Wow, wow, wow, wow They always say "Congratulations" ever since I took a bow.

The kitchen counter turned a strip club, lights going crazy Diamonds by the boatload, vision getting hazy My AP going psycho, can't trust no one with the gold Hunnid deep with the army, yeah, the story's being told Made my first million and I knew this was the one Thirty for a walkthrough, man, we having all the fun Pulling up in Utah with the Lambo in the snow Trunk in the front, Dumbo, watch the guap grow.

You were talking shit back when I was feeling more forgiving Now it pisses you off just to see the life I'm living When I got the guap, all of y'all disappeared Before I dropped the hits, none of y'all really cared.

Every time I show up, they just saying: "Wow" The ice in my mouth got 'em looking at me now See the igloo in my grin when I'm winning the game I'm flying at the top, and they finally know the name Wow, wow, wow, wow Saying: "Wow".
