

Título da Música: Benzo Chase

I'm rollin', rollin', rollin' through the city lights
Tryna forget the way we used to ignite
Everything came second to the Benzo and the chase
Now I'm just a ghost, a memory you erased
You're not even speaking to my circle or my friends
I'm staring at the ceiling where the story ends.

Seasons changed and the wind started to blow cold
I'm waiting on a sign, something I can hold
But I knew this was doomed from the very get-go
Now I'm just a stranger that you used to know.

You probably think that you're better now, better now
Only saying that 'cause I'm not around, not around
I never meant to let you down, let you down
Woulda gave you anything, woulda gave you everything
But life it goes on, tell me what can I do?
I'm still so broken, still so caught up over you.

I seen you with another dude, he's looking pretty cool
While I'm drowning in the Henny, acting like a fool
I wonder if a bigger chain or a foreign ride
Could fill the empty space I'm feeling deep inside
Twenty candles burning out, looking at the past
We were moving way too forward, moving way too fast.

I promise I'll be okay, I swear it to you now
Even though the crown is heavy on my brow
You were the love of my life, the only one I need
But I'm no good at goodbyes, I'm just left to bleed.

You probably think that you're better now, better now
Only saying that 'cause I'm not around, not around
I never meant to let you down, let you down
Woulda gave you anything, woulda gave you everything
Oh-oh, I'm better now.

Just let it go, let it go
Running in circles, yeah, I already know
Better now... Yeah.
